

Documents needed for an application to “Facharztweiterbildung”

- Diploma of Human Medicine Studies, translated to English or German (stamped from your countries health department or other validating institution.)
- Transcript of records, translated to English or German
- Certificate of internship year (Praktisches Jahr)
- High School Certificate, translated to English or German
- CV, in English or German
- Certificate of German language knowledge
- Short description of the areas /specialties / techniques you are interested in during your medical education (Arabic, German or English)
- Scan of your passport (birthdate, birth place, full name)
- Email address, Telephone number
- 8 x Professional application picture
- Your signature in Latin letters (scan!)
- If available: recommendation letters, English or German
- If available: Berufserlaubnis
- If available: Certificate of working as a doctor
- If available: Logbook of your medical training/work